

Anisa Group announces two new senior appointments.

To support its continued growth and investment in product development, the Anisa Group has made two senior appointments in the third quarter of 2011

Kathryn Howarth joins as Group Marketing Manager. An experienced marketing professional, Kathryn has worked within a number of leading IT organisations including JD Edwards, Hewlett–Packard and Pace.

Dave Renshaw, CEO of the Anisa Group commented, 'Kathryn is a key addition to our excellent senior management team. She brings a wealth of marketing experience together with the vision, enthusiasm and strength of character to drive our marketing initiatives through across our growing businesses.

Courtenay Davies has joined the Group as Financial Controller for In2grate Business Solutions. Courtenay is a qualified certified accountant with particular experience of logistics businesses, which is especially relevant given the Group's supply chain focus.

Lionel Moore, Financial Director of the Anisa Group commented, 'We are delighted to have Courtenay join our finance team. His background in logistics together with his strong finance background is ideal for a growing supply chain business such as Anisa. In addition to financial and management accounting responsibilities, Courtenay will have responsibility for the financial control of our increasing R&D investments in our CALIDUS supply chain and ERP solutions.'
